

Problem Statement-

Colleges do not provide enough information regarding housing opportunities on campus.

Details:

The housing portal that colleges use should provide more information about the different dorms, roommates, and should allow users to have a better way to specifically choose where they want to live.