

Problem Statement-

There are not enough guidelines regarding the access to inappropriate content on the internet.

Details:

There are many ways that inappropriate content is spread on the internet, and this content can easily be accessed by anyone. This can cause younger internet users to be exposed to things that they should not see at an early age.